

Policy background:
The Bilateral Policy Agreements between the EU and Ukraine

No.	Type and Name of agreements	Purpose/Principle of agreement	Areas of Cooperation	Forms of cooperation (Implementing Instruments)	Funding instrument / Terms of funding	Connected programs	On-line source of document	Additional or general information
1	Partnership and Cooperation Agreement with Ukraine, 1994 (came into force: 1998)	General provision of a framework for political dialogue; formulation of common objectives: harmonious economic relations, sustainable development, co-operation in a number of areas, support to Ukraine's efforts towards democracy; creation of an institutional framework for pursuing these goals.	civil scientific research and technological	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - the exchange of scientific and technical information; - joint RTD activities, - training activities and mobility programmes for scientists, researchers and technicians engaged in RTD in both sides. Where such co-operation takes the form of activities involving education and/or training, it should be carried out in accordance with the provisions of Article 59.			http://trade.ec.europa.eu/doclib/docs/2003/october/tradoc_111612.pdf	http://ec.europa.eu/world/agreements/prepareCreateTreatiesWorkspace/treatiesGeneralData.do?step=0&redirect=true&treatyId=217
2	Protocol to the Partnership and Cooperation Agreement establishing a partnership between the European Communities and their Member States, of the one Part, and Ukraine, of the other part	Since the Partnership and Cooperation Agreement was signed before the enlargement of the European Union, on 1 January 1995, this Protocol was necessary to include Austria, Finland and Sweden (the three new Member States) in the Partnership and Cooperation Agreement.					http://ec.europa.eu/world/agreements/prepareCreateTreatiesWorkspace/treatiesGeneralData.do?step=0&redirect=true&treatyId=220	http://ec.europa.eu/world/agreements/prepareCreateTreatiesWorkspace/treatiesGeneralData.do?step=0&redirect=true&treatyId=220
3	Protocol to the Partnership and Cooperation Agreement between the European Communities and their Member States, of the one part, and Ukraine, of the other part, on a Framework Agreement between the European Union and Ukraine on the general principles for the participation of Ukraine in Union programmes	It sets out the criteria allowing Ukraine to participate in all current and future programmes of the Union opened to the participation of Ukraine in accordance with the relevant provisions adopting those programmes. Remarks The specific terms and conditions regarding the participation of Ukraine in each particular programme, in particular the financial contribution payable, as well as reporting and evaluation procedures, shall be determined by a Memorandum of Understanding between the European Commission, and the competent authorities of Ukraine. Provisional application from the date of signature (Art. 10), on 22/10/2010 This Protocol shall apply for the period for which the Agreement is in force.					http://ec.europa.eu/world/agreements/downloadFile.do?fullText=yes&treatyTransId=14502	http://ec.europa.eu/world/agreements/prepareCreateTreatiesWorkspace/treatiesGeneralData.do?step=0&redirect=true&treatyId=8802

Policy background:
The Bilateral Policy Agreements between the EU and Ukraine

No.	Type and Name of agreements	Purpose/Principle of agreement	Areas of Cooperation	Forms of cooperation (Implementing Instruments)	Funding instrument / Terms of funding	Connected programs	On-line source of document	Additional or general information
4	Agreement on cooperation in S&T between the EC and Ukraine (into force from 11/02/2003 and renewed on 8/11/2004)	"The programme's overall aim is to encourage, develop and facilitate cooperative activities in fields of common interest where the parties are pursuing research and development activities in science and technology. Cooperative activities shall be conducted on the basis of mutual benefit, timely exchange of information and balanced realisation of economic and social benefits by the Parties."	development (RTD) on the basis of mutual benefit. Areas of cooperation activities are:— environment and climate research, including earth observation, — biomedical and health research, — agriculture, forestry and fisheries research, — industrial and production technologies, — materials research and metrology, — non-nuclear energy, — transportation, — information society technologies, — social sciences research, — science and technology policy, — training and exchange of scientists.	participation of Ukrainian entities in Community projects, in the areas of cooperative activities, and a reciprocal participation of entities established in the Community in Ukrainian projects in those areas; free access to, and shared use of research facilities, including installations and sites for monitoring, observation and experimentation, as well as data collections, relevant to the cooperative activities; visits and exchanges of scientists, engineers, or other appropriate personnel for the purposes of participating in seminars, symposia and workshops relevant to cooperation under this Agreement; exchange of information on practices, legislation, regulations and programmes relevant to cooperation under this Agreement; other activities as may be mutually determined by the Parties in accordance with the applicable policies and programmes of the Parties. Moreover: Joint research projects shall proceed under this Agreement only after the participants in a project	Cooperative scientific and technological activities shall be subject to the availability of funds and to the applicable laws and regulations, policies and programmes of the Community and Ukraine. As a rule, each Party shall bear the costs of discharging its responsibilities under this Agreement, including costs of participation in meetings of the Committee. When specific scientific and technological cooperative forms benefit from financial support of the European Community, either directly or indirectly through organisations set up with the participation of the European Community, provided to participants of Ukraine, any such grants, financial or other contributions from the European Community to participants of Ukraine in support of their scientific and technological activities, shall be granted tax and customs preferences. Any such grants shall be exempt		http://eur-lex.europa.eu/LexUriServ/l exUriServ.do?uri=OJ:L:200 3:036:0032:0039:EN:PDF	http://ec.europa.eu/world/agreements/prepare/CreateTreatiesWorkspace/treatiesGeneralData.do?step=0&redirect=true&treatyId=223
5	Agreement on renewing the Agreement on Cooperation in Science and Technology between the European Community and Ukraine; first renewal came into force as of 8/11/2004; Latest renewal: 16.11.2011 the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine adopted the Law "On Ratification of the Agreement by Exchange of Notes on Renewal of the Agreement on Scientific and Technological Cooperation between the European Community and Ukraine". The agreement renews the Agreement on Scientific and Technological Cooperation between the European Community and Ukraine (July 4, 2002 signed in Copenhagen) for an extra five-year period (see pt.4).	To pursue their cooperation in science and technology in the formal framework established by the Agreement. The Agreement renewing the Agreement on cooperation in science and technology between the European Community and Ukraine for an additional period of five years is approved on behalf of the Community (see no. 4). The Parties shall arrange an environment for cooperation in scientific and technological research to strengthen working relationship in the areas of common interest and encourage use of the results for the economic and social benefit of the Parties.	resources, adequate access to their respective programmes and subject to appropriate levels				http://ec.europa.eu/world/agreements/prepare/CreateTreatiesWorkspace/treatiesGeneralData.do?step=0&redirect=true&treatyId=225 and http://portal.rada.gov.ua/rada/control/uk/publish/article/news_left?art_id=29008.3&cat_id=37486	http://ec.europa.eu/world/agreements/prepare/CreateTreatiesWorkspace/treatiesGeneralData.do?step=0&redirect=true&treatyId=225

Policy background:
The Bilateral Policy Agreements between the EU and Ukraine

No.	Type and Name of agreements	Purpose/Principle of agreement	Areas of Cooperation	Forms of cooperation (Implementing Instruments)	Funding instrument / Terms of funding	Connected programs	On-line source of document	Additional or general information
6	Agreement for Cooperation between the European Atomic Energy Community and the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine in the field of controlled nuclear fusion; into force from 13/11/2002 and to be renewed on 13/11/2012	To maintain and intensify cooperation between the Parties in the areas covered by their respective fusion programmes in order to develop the scientific understanding and technological capability underlying a fusion power system.	of effective protection of intellectual, industrial and commercial property rights (IPR).	Cooperation shall be implemented in particular through: - exchange of technical information by means of reports, visits, seminars, technical meetings, etc.; - exchange of personnel between laboratories and/or bodies involved on both sides, including for training purposes; - exchange of samples, materials, instruments and apparatus for experimental purposes; - balanced participation in joint studies and activities.	All costs deriving from cooperation shall be borne by the parties, unless specifically agreed		http://ec.europa.eu/world/agreements/prepareCreateTreatiesWorkspace/treatiesGeneralData.do?step=0&redirect=true&treatyId=221	http://ec.europa.eu/world/agreements/prepareCreateTreatiesWorkspace/treatiesGeneralData.do?step=0&redirect=true&treatyId=221
7	Agreement for Cooperation between the European Atomic Energy Community and the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine in the field of nuclear safety, into force from 13/11/2002 and to be renewed on 13/11/2012	It aims to encourage and contribute to the improvement of nuclear safety, including the definition and application of scientifically warranted and internationally accepted nuclear safety guidelines.	Intended to establish cooperation in the use of nuclear energy for peaceful purposes, conducted on the basis of the principle of mutual benefit.	Cooperation shall be implemented in particular through: - exchange of technical information by means of reports, visits, seminars, technical meetings, etc.; - exchange of personnel between laboratories and/or bodies involved on both sides, including for training purposes; - exchange of samples, materials, instruments and apparatus for experimental purposes; - balanced participation in joint studies and activities.	All costs deriving from cooperation shall be borne by the parties, the financing of industrial activities is excluded from this agreement		http://ec.europa.eu/world/agreements/prepareCreateTreatiesWorkspace/treatiesGeneralData.do?step=0&redirect=true&treatyId=222	http://ec.europa.eu/world/agreements/prepareCreateTreatiesWorkspace/treatiesGeneralData.do?step=0&redirect=true&treatyId=222

Policy background:
The Bilateral Policy Agreements between the EU and Ukraine

No.	Type and Name of agreements	Purpose/Principle of agreement	Areas of Cooperation	Forms of cooperation (Implementing Instruments)	Funding instrument / Terms of funding	Connected programs	On-line source of document	Additional or general information
8	European Atomic Energy Community (EURATOM) and the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine for Co-operation in the Peaceful Uses of Nuclear Energy	provide a framework for co-operation between the Parties in the peaceful uses of nuclear energy with a view to strengthening the overall co-operation relationship between the Community and Ukraine on the basis of mutual benefit and reciprocity	(a) nuclear safety (Article 4); (b) controlled nuclear fusion (Article 5); (c) nuclear research and development in other areas than those foreseen under subparagraph (a) and (b) above (Article 6); Article 6 Other areas of nuclear research and development 1. Co-operation shall extend to nuclear research and development activities of mutual interest to the Parties other than those been provided for in Articles 4 and 5 of this Agreement above, as agreed between the Parties, in so far as they are covered by respective research and development activities undertaken by the Parties. 2. On the Community side, the co-operation may include in particular the following areas: (a) applications of nuclear energy in the fields of medicine and	The co-operation shall be implemented in particular through: — exchange of technical information by means of reports, visits, seminars, technical meetings, etc, — exchange of personnel between laboratories and/or bodies involved on both sides, including for training purposes, — exchange of samples, materials, instruments and apparatus for experimental purposes, — balanced participation in joint studies and activities.	Terms and conditions for co-operation in concrete projects will be laid down in implementing arrangements, entered into by the Parties acting through their competent institutions which will proceed according to their respective legislative and regulatory requirements. L 261/28 EN Official Journal of the European Union 22.9.2006 5. Such implementing arrangements may, inter alia, cover financing provisions, assignment of management responsibilities and detailed provisions on dissemination of information and intellectual property rights. 6. Costs resulting from co-operation activities shall be borne by the Party that incurs them, unless otherwise specifically agreed by the Parties.		http://ec.europa.eu/world/agreements/downloadFile.do?fullText=yes&treatyTransId=10181	http://ec.europa.eu/world/agreements/prepare/CreateTreatiesWorkspace/treatiesGeneralData.do?step=0&redirect=true&treatyId=5521
9	ENP European Neighborhood Policy - EU-UKR Action Plan	Ukraine and the European Union agreed to enter into intensified political, security, economic and cultural relations, including cross border co-operation. Its implementation will help fulfil the provisions in the Partnership and Cooperation Agreement (PCA) as a valid basis for EU-Ukraine cooperation, and will encourage and support Ukraine's objective of further integration into European economic and social structures	The European Neighbourhood Policy opens new partnership, economic integration and cooperation perspectives		ENPI European Neighborhood and Partnership Instrument; TACIS (till 2006), Tacis Nuclear Safety Programme (until January 1, 2007), Instrument for Nuclear Safety Co-operation (INSC) (from 2007 onwards), CBC Cross-Border Co-operation Programme; INOGATE Interstate Oil and Gas Transport to Europe Programme	ENPI: National and Regional Action Programmes	http://ec.europa.eu/world/enp/funding_en.htm	http://ec.europa.eu/world/enp/index_en.htm ; http://ec.europa.eu/world/enp/welcome_en.htm

Policy background:
The Bilateral Policy Agreements between the EU and Ukraine

No.	Type and Name of agreements	Purpose/Principle of agreement	Areas of Cooperation	Forms of cooperation (Implementing Instruments)	Funding instrument / Terms of funding	Connected programs	On-line source of document	Additional or general information
10	Agreement between EC and Ukraine on GALILEO and Air Transportation (June 2005)	provides for co-operative activities on satellite navigation in a wide range of sectors,	science and technology, industrial manufacturing, service and market development, as well as standardisation, frequency and certification.	call for tenders under FP7 (Theme 7 - Transport including Aeronautics)	call for tenders under FP7 (Theme 7 - Transport including Aeronautics)	GALILEO Programme, GALILEO joint undertaking	GALILEO joint undertaking: http://www.galileoju.com/doc/General%20Clauses%20and%20Conditions%20of%20GJU%20Contracts.pdf http://www.galileoju.com/doc/General%20Conditions%20of%20Tender1.pdf	GALILEO joint undertaking: http://www.galileoju.com/page.cfm?voce=m&idvoce=301&plugIn=1
11	Agreement to Establish a Science and Technology Center in Ukraine (STCU) - 1998	To set up an intergovernmental organization with the status of a diplomatic mission and dedicated to the prevention of the proliferation of expertise related to weapons of mass destruction (WMD)	Research and development activities for peaceful applications by Ukrainian, Georgian, Uzbekistani, Azerbaijani, and Moldovan scientists and engineers (Recipients), formerly involved with development of weapons of mass destruction and their means of delivery, as part of the general process of conversion to a civilian, market-oriented environment	Grants for the so called Regular Projects or for Research Partnerships (STCU Partner Program, private companies, industry organizations, academic and non-government organizations, and government agencies and programs from Canada, European Union, and the USA may contract for research and development work with Azeri, Georgian, Moldovan, Ukrainian and Uzbek scientists and institutes.) The general objective is to facilitate the integration of former Soviet weapons scientists into the global scientific re-search and development community by encouraging peaceful and productive engagements in joint projects.	1) Regular Projects are all funded by Governments of our Donor Countries (http://osx.stcu.int/stcups/downloads/).Funding Parties of STCU projects include the signatories to the STCU agreement (Canada, European Union, Ukraine, and the United States of America) 2) STCU Partner Program (http://www.stcu.int/offer/commercialcontres/).Private companies, industry organizations, government agencies and programs from Canada, European Union, and the USA can apply for Partner Status		http://www.stcu.int/	The Agreement was originally signed by Canada, Sweden, Ukraine, and the United States of America in 1993. Subsequently, Sweden was replaced by the European Union. As of June 2009, the STCU employs over 4,400 scientists working on approximately 220 projects in the field (approx. 70% in Ukraine, the remainder in Georgia, Azerbaijan, and Uzbekistan)