4	Jean Monnet Programme under the Lifelong Learning Programme	supports university initiatives aimed at creating teaching activities in European integration	The Jean Monnet programme contains three distinct key activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Support for University-level projects on European integration. These include university chairs, centres of excellence, course modules, information or research activities as well as support for academic associations of professors and researchers in European integration. Jean Monnet projects are selected on the basis of their academic merits and following a process of rigorous and independent peer review. Support for six specific academic institutions pursuing an aim of European interest, such as the College of Europe and the European University Institute. These six institutions do not need to apply for funding as they have been explicitly listed in the Lifelong Learning Programme by the European Parliament and the Council. Support for European-wide associations active at European level in the field of education and training. These European associations must be present in at least 12 EU Member States. There is a specific annual call for proposals for the selection of these associations. 	Calls for proposals - Jean Monnet Programme: Jean Monnet European Modules, Jean Monnet Chairs, "Ad Personam" Jean Monnet Chairs, Jean Monnet Centres of Excellence, Jean Monnet Multilateral Research Groups, Support for professors, researchers and research activities relating to European integration;	http://ec.europa.eu/education/jean-monnet/doc609_en.htm	http://eacea.ec.europa.eu/lfp/jeanmonnet/directory/New/Version/2008/V1/aimrepertoire/pres10.asp?pays=Ukraine/Ukraine&univ=&nom=

8	Joint Operational Programme Romania-Ukraine-Republic of Moldova 2007-2013	The Joint Operational Programme Romania-Ukraine-Republic of Moldova 2007-2013 (hereinafter JOP RO-UA-MD) is one of the EU's new ENPI financing instruments, which are going to be implemented on the EU's external borders during the programme period 2007 – 2013. It aims at creating "bridges" among the three countries involved, in order to help the border areas overcome their similar development challenges, by working together and finding common solutions. Hence, instead of dividing, the border will unite the areas concerned. Through the JOP RO-UA-MD the people in border areas will be encouraged to further develop the border economy, confront environmental challenges and enhance their preparedness for emergency situations. The program will also promote greater interaction between people and communities living in the border areas. The EC funding for the JOP RO-UA-MD is 126,72 ME for the period 2007 to 2013.	Priority 1: Towards a more competitive border economy. 1.1 Improving the productivity and competitiveness of the region's urban and rural areas by working across borders 1.2 Cross-border initiatives in transport, border infrastructure and energy Priority 2: Environmental Challenges and Emergency Preparedness. 2.1 Addressing strategic cross-border environmental challenges including emergency preparedness. 2.2 Water supply, sewerage and waste management Priority 3: People to People Co-operation. 3.1 Local and regional governance, support to civil society and local communities. 3.2 Educational, social and cultural exchanges	1. 11	Nuclear Safety Co-operation Instrument (NSCI)	The Nuclear Safety Co-operation Instrument (NSCI) finances measures to support a higher level of nuclear safety, radiation protection and the application of efficient and effective safeguards of nuclear materials in third countries. Its aim is to finance actions in the following priority areas: (i) improving nuclear safety, particularly in terms of regulatory framework or management of nuclear plant safety (design, operation, maintenance, decommissioning), (ii) the safe transport, treatment and disposal of radioactive waste, (iii) the remediation of former nuclear sites and the protection against ionising radiation given off by radioactive materials, (iv) emergency preparedness (accident prevention as well as reaction in the event of an accident), (v) promotion of international cooperation in the field of nuclear safety. Nuclear safety and non-proliferation actions are implemented by EuropeAid, with the collaboration of External Relations DG, the Energy and Transport DG and the technical support of the Commission's Joint Research Centre.	Since 1 January 2007, it replaces the TACIS Nuclear Safety Programme which had covered safety of nuclear installation in the New Independent States (NIS), created as a result of the break-up of the Soviet Union.	The NSCI has a budget of €524 million for 2007-2013. The assistance is implemented on the basis of multiannual strategy papers and multiannual indicative programmes. The strategy papers cover one or more countries for a maximum of seven years and contain multiannual indicative programmes specifying the key objectives and indicative financial allocations. On the basis of these documents, the Commission adopts action programmes, usually on annual basis. Certain measures may be adopted although not included in the programming documents: this is the case of special measures (adopted in an emergency) and support measures (for example, technical or administrative assistance). The indicative programme 2007-2009 has a budget of €217 million, equally divided among: measures in Russia, measures in Ukraine and needs in the other NIS countries.	The entities which are eligible for funding are: partner countries and regions and their decentralised bodies, public and parastatal bodies, private companies, non-state actors such as non-governmental organisations or professional associations, natural persons, the Joint Research Centre or EU agencies, international organisations and financial institutions. In case of call for proposals and tenders: each of them will specify in related documents the eligibility criteria for that specific call or tender.		http://ec.europa.eu/europeaid/how/finance/nsci_en.htm

13	Central Europe Programme	CENTRAL EUROPE is a European Union programme that encourages cooperation among the countries of Central Europe to improve innovation, accessibility and the environment and to enhance the competitiveness and attractiveness of their cities and regions. CENTRAL EUROPE invests €231 million to provide funding to transnational cooperation projects involving public and private organisations from Austria, the Czech Republic, Germany, Hungary, Italy, Poland, the Slovak Republic and Slovenia. The programme is financed by the European Regional Development Fund and runs from 2007 to 2013. Interested partnerships are invited to propose their projects following public calls for proposals, which will be widely publicised.	CENTRAL EUROPE provides funding for cooperation projects covering four thematic areas: PRIORITY 1: Facilitating innovation across Central Europe PRIORITY 2: Improving accessibility to, and within, Central Europe PRIORITY 3: Using our environment responsibly PRIORITY 4: Enhancing competitiveness and attractiveness of cities and regions	The CENTRAL EUROPE programme finances territorial cooperation projects that add explicit value to the CENTRAL EUROPE cooperation area. Whether or not a project generates transnational added value is the result of key factors such as, among others, the issue addressed, the partnership involved, the degree of innovation and the visibility and impact of project activities and results. More specifically projects seeking funds from the CENTRAL EUROPE Programme should meet the following characteristics: Transnational thematic focus: Projects should focus on issues that are relevant to the four programme priorities and their areas of intervention and that cannot be sufficiently addressed by individual regions or countries alone. Projects should also contribute to the overall programme goals such as strengthening territorial cohesion and enhancing the competitiveness of Central Europe.	http://www.central2013.eu/central-projects/applying-for-a-project/	http://www.central2013.eu/nc/central-projects/approved-projects/	CENTRAL EUROPE Programme Joint Technical Secretariat Museumstrasse 3/A/III A-1070 Vienna Fax: +43 (0) 1 4000 - 9976141 Email: info(at)central2013.eu http://www.central2013.eu
